

Business group meetings – past meeting resources

WisDOT has formed business groups by interchange area in an effort to help establish clear communication between WisDOT and the business community. These groups are providing businesses with firsthand information about project milestones and identifying needs and concerns before and during construction.

WisDOT is keeping all information available and easily accessible in case you're too busy to attend a meeting:

2011 Meeting Resources

2010 Meeting Resources